ACT63. Deep in danger

Sigh.....
We are back here
again

"The Abyss of Light".

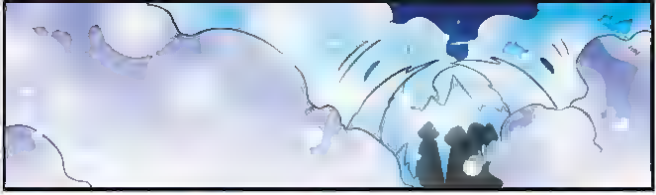
The last location that was indicated, is inside.
If it's like that, then they also only have one method.
Protective Barrier
You can't just enter or leave the academy's protectic barrier, as once past the warning line, you'll be immediately found out.
The Abyss of Light
The only exception is here, The Abyss of Light, the place where the incident happened last time.
Only after entering the abyss, and then finding the exit of the academy's boundary, then you can get past the protective barrier.

Isn't "The Abyss of Light" created by higher class monsters?
Yes
The monsters inside has already been wiped by the academy
Even so, we can't be careless.
The abandoned abyss would gradually turn into a empty land.
In the end, it would lure the "wanderers" that are deep outside the forest.
To complete seal "The Abyss of Light", it would require at least over three sage class magicians.
The abyss in front of us, is only temporarily sealed.

Our classmates Comocky and Iku, to enter the den..... had broken the current seals.
From the remaining traces, we can tell that they must have spent a great amount of strength.
Let's not be late! We should hurry and catch up.
Class pres, please use your power to create the "Suspension ball" alone with me.
.....Alright.

The "suspension ball" can safely move us to deep outside the den at fast speed.
Isn't the descending speed a bit too fast wa wawa——



Hey?
Aisela this is completely different to the last time we came here
That's of course

Back then the place we entered,
was just a layer of isolated space. This is the real appearance deep outside the den.

There is still the remaining scent of many monsters.
Humph.....
I will use red flames along the way to illuminate and use it as markings This way we won't have to be worried about getting lost.
Aisela, you're amazing!
Everyone, be careful!
Everyone, we must not get separated here

It's seems——
What's that sound?

Where at?

靜……
Silent

啊啊啊啊啊啊
What's this sound?!
Above text:
ARGHHHHH
(Screaming)

STOP CHASING ME
AROUNO ALREAOY
YOU SLIMY THING
AHHHHHHHHH——

噗咻~
噗咻~
噗咻~
He's here now,
Iku quickly get him!

Translator's note:

Nevn here,
I just want to say it's my first time translating, editing, cleaning pages and the sort. Also my chinese isn't perfect so please bear with it. It should be still accurate enough, and readable, and I try to do my best to research anything I don't know.

So, think of it as a rough translation I guess? Haha. Anyways more releases coming very soon.
